Habitat Omaha to Beautify Six Square Blocks in Olde Towne Bellevue Volunteer Event

More than 150 volunteers to participate in “Rock the Block” Saturday, Sept. 24

For Immediate Release: Thursday, Sept. 22, 2022

What

Habitat for Humanity of Omaha is holding its first Bellevue Rock the Block neighborhood revitalization event with more than 150 volunteers. Workers will help paint and repair exteriors of houses, clean up properties, complete landscaping needs and more.

When

Saturday, Sept. 24, 8 a.m.-12:30 p.m.

Where

Area near Swine Dining BBQ, 204 E. Mission Ave. (volunteers will meet there), <https://goo.gl/maps/BxzCiRr5JqbJ7HFr7>

Why

Rock the Block events are designed to inspire people to become active participants in their neighborhoods while helping to transform the face of a block in one day, bringing together volunteers and homeowners. Habitat Omaha conducts these projects in its five-county service area as part of its commitment to building communities and providing affordable housing opportunities.

Who

Habitat Omaha staff and volunteers from Cobalt Credit Union, OPPD, Sarpy County Chamber of Commerce and Thrivent.

Editor’s Note: The news media is invited and encouraged to attend. Interviews and photo opportunities will be available. Work site contact is Ken Mar, Habitat Omaha Area Director, Burt, Cass, Sarpy and Washington counties, (402) 616-6753.

About Habitat for Humanity of Omaha

Founded in 1984, Habitat for Humanity of Omaha builds and renovates homes, repairs existing houses, takes down blighted structures and advocates for better laws and systems. Habitat also works with individuals and families to acquire the access, skills and financial education to become successful homeowners. Through shelter, we empower.
